

IAGE Distinguished Service Award

The IAGE Distinguished Service Award is an honor bestowed to an individual who has provided exemplary service to the Association. It recognizes the individual's outstanding contribution to the IAGE, IGEC, IJGE, and the professional communities at large.

Rules and Eligibility

- Nomination is required. Self-nominations are not accepted.
- Nominees of any nationality are eligible.
- Previous recipients of the Distinguished Service Award are not eligible.

Administration

- The Distinguished Service Award is managed by the IAGE Honors and Awards Committee.
- The IAGE Honors and Awards Committee is responsible for soliciting and evaluating nominations and making selection decisions.
- The Award is normally presented at the annual IGEC conference.

Nomination Submission Information

The nomination should be submitted to the IAGE Honors and Awards Committee. The nomination information required includes:

- Nominee and Nominator Information: Full name, organization, mailing address, email address, and telephone number.
- Nominator statement (2 pages maximum) which supports the candidate's suitability for the Award on the candidate's distinguished service records to the Association.
- Curriculum vitae of the Nominee and any additional supporting information relevant to the Nominee's contribution may also be included.